

News Release: Currituck Outer Banks offers something for everyone

CURRITUCK COUNTY, NC. Word is getting out about Currituck County, Coastal Carolina's beautiful oceanfront community. From sun-swept beaches and lazy summer days to outdoor festivals and Wild Horses, from specialty shops and charming boutiques to upscale retailers and elegant fine dining, Currituck County is more than you imagined.

On the mainland, Currituck borders Virginia to the north and is just a short drive from metropolitan Hampton Roads. The Outer Banks communities, nestled on a barrier island surrounded on three sides by water and marshes, enjoy peaceful seclusion. With proximity to urban amenities and a waterfront playground, Currituck County offers you the best of both worlds.

Long known as a sportsman's paradise, Currituck County is a nature lover's dream. Relax on the tranquil beaches of the Currituck Outer Banks, or take advantage of plentiful hunting, fishing and outdoor adventures. Currituck Sound's brackish waters provide a bounty of fishing, canoeing and eco-tourism. If you're a nature enthusiast, you'll also find a wide range of options at Mackay Island Wildlife Refuge where hunters, fishermen, photographers, hikers and birders fill their days with exciting activity.

Day-trippers fall in love with Currituck's quaint historical attractions, such as Historic Corolla Village, Currituck Beach Lighthouse and the Whalehead Club. While traveling through the county, you'll want to stop at the numerous roadside farm markets that feature locally-grown fruits and vegetables. Then visit one of Currituck's charming vineyards to sample the Outer Banks' wine selections.

Visitors to the Currituck Outer Banks find serene beaches, friendly locals and a pleasant, relaxed atmosphere. A high quality of life, endless outdoor activities and the perfect blend of history make Currituck County a popular destination.
