Travel through time...

Day One

- a) Confederate War Memorial (Currituck, Courthouse)
- b) Currituck County Historic Jail and Courthouse (Currituck, Courthouse)
- c) Historic Jarvisburg Colored School (Jarvisburg)
- d) Courthouse Café (Currituck)
- e) Crabbie's Restaurant (Coinjock)
- f) Currituck BBQ Company (Barco)
- g) Cindy's Kitchen (Coinjock)

Every historical visitor to Currituck County starts at the Confederate War Memorial that hosts a large pink granite ball that honors "Our Confederate Dead." See the original courthouse that is to this day, home of the County's governmental administrative offices. Next door to the Currituck County Historic Courthouse, is the original Currituck Jail and it is one of the four oldest jails in North Carolina. Choose from our great variety of restaurants with everything from seafood to home cooked meals. Try dining at the Courthouse Café, Crabbie's Restaurant, Currituck BBQ Company, or Cindy's Kitchen. The Historic Jarvisburg Colored School is an extremely rare example of a pre-Rosenwald African American school constructed in North Carolina. This school has future hopes of becoming a fully restored museum.

Day Two

Below all are located in Corolla, NC

- h) Carolina Carriages
- i) Corolla Chapel
- j) Currituck Beach Lighthouse
- k) Lewark-Gray House

Not up for walking, take a historic tour of Corolla Village by Horse Drawn Carriage; provided by Carolina Carriages. Areas include the Corolla Chapel, Currituck Beach Lighthouse, and Whalehead Club to name a few. Reservations are required; please call 252-619-5745.

Constructed in 1885, the Corolla Chapel showcases the pelican altar window; so come and hear its story. Climb up 214 steps of the red brick Currituck Beach Lighthouse to see one of the only lighthouses that still houses its original first-order Fresnel lens. The Displaying nothing but style and elegance, the Lewark-Gray House was built in 1895. Whether you have your heart set on seafood, Italian or sandwiches, there are many restaurants to suggest. Try Bunkers Bar and Grille, Lighthouse Bagels and Deli, Lovie's Kitchen Table, or Nicoletta's Italian Café.

Day Three

Below all are located in Corolla, NC

- l) Parker House
- m) Whalehead Club
- n) Currituck Beach Lighthouse
- o) Bluewater Seafood Market
- p) Corolla Market and Deli
- q) Cosmo's Pizzeria

The Parker House was built in 1900, and later restored as its unique village house. It is also home of the Lighthouse Garden shop that includes garden motifs, Italian ceramics, pottery and more. Take your time and enjoy the previous life of Edward Collings Knight Jr. and his wife Marie-Louise. Historic Corolla invites you to enjoy the Currituck Beach Lighthouse and Walehead Club. Climb 214 lighthouse steps for a panoramic view or tour the Whalehead Club – the 1925 residence of Mr. and Mrs. Knight, which reflects the natural beauty of the area. Explore the picturesque grounds not only from the inside but along the many bike paths and picnic areas too! Since both are located within Currituck Heritage Park, they make a great place to spend the day! Are you hungry? Eat at Bluewater Seafood Market, Corolla Market and Deli, or Cosmo's Pizzeria.
