ABOUT OUR SHOW

Under the Oaks Art Festival is an annual juried outdoor festival featuring fine artist, jewelers, and crafters. The festival features the unique talents of quality artists with a wide variety of media, local food concessions, and a silent art auction that benefits Whalehead in Historic Corolla Park. Whalehead was the 1920's residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collings Knight, Jr., a 21,000-square-foot "mansion by the sea". Hosted by Currituck County Travel & Tourism, the festival provides local and regional artists an opportunity to display and sell their creative work on the sweeping waterfront grounds of Historic Corolla Park at Whalehead. One hundred-year-old live oaks, open green lawns, and casual breezes from the Currituck Sound make for a perfect location.
